

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF CREATIVE RESEARCH THOUGHTS (IJCRT)

An International Open Access, Peer-reviewed, Refereed Journal

Orison of a Pandemic Victim...

- Dr S. Anita Evelyn

Dr. ANITA EVELYN S

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

R.M.K. ENGINEERING COLLEGE

Walking through the trench of sorrow

Cranium bent down in plea

Filled with tears of morrow

None can share nor borrow...

'tis the life of multitude

Weakened by the solitude

Brazened by the jaws of snare –yet

Strengthened by HIS promises bare...

When in doubt – feel the pain

Like a lamb to be slain

Promises rain in brain

Peace sublime fills to reign.

O how I in awesome wonder

When my thoughts start to brew underneath

Your deliverance, could feel and I surrender...

As Thou does help, none can render

To me a human...

Take me, Heal me

Make me what I should be!!!

A Brief Bio Note

Dr S. Anita Evelyn, is an Associate Professor in the Department of English (Science & Humanities), at R.M.K. Engineering College (affiliated to Anna University, Chennai), Chennai. She has co-authored a book titled 'Vocabulary-Play & Practice', published research papers in National & International Journals and has also presented papers at National & International Conferences. Her poems have been published in The Criterion – An International Journal in English, Taj Mahal Review, and The Journal of English Language & Literary Studies (TJELLS), ROOTS - an International Journal of Multidisciplinary Researches and International Journal of Emerging Technologies and Innovative Research (JETIR).

She has been bestowed with Bharat Vikas Award 2018 for her loyalty, diligence, and outstanding performance in the field of Dialects of English Language. She received this honour on the occasion of 'National Seminar on Intellectuals' Social Responsibility' held on December 01, 2018 at Odisha. Shri. Panchanan Kanungo (Former Finance Minister, Govt. of Odisha) presented the award.