1. Explanation:

- The service of mankind is the service of God .There is not a single religion which does not preach the ideal of service to humanity .
- God loves those who love their fellow men .
- In a dream Abou saw an angel preparing a list of those who loved God . Abou's name did not figure in this list . But since he loved his fellow men , his name was put at the top in the list of those whom God had blessed .
- Jesus once told the people , "I was hungry and you gave Me food ,Iwas thirsty and you gave Me drink".
- What is given to man is directly given to God .

2. Conclusion:

- God love those who love the things they have created.
- Therefore, we should help each other when we are in trouble.
