1. Who is Lord Parvathi Sarahunaath? Is there Lord Sarahunaath is a Lord Parvathinaath?

If there was any female deity sitting next to Lord Sarahunath, it could have been Parvati or some other deity. That is, if any female deity sits next to Sarahunath like Shiva Parvati, it is called Parvathinath or Parvati Sarahunath Mandir. That means if any deity sits next to Sarahunaath as Sarvamangali, she is Parvati for Sarahunath. Or if Goddess Parvati herself comes and sits next to Sarahunath, it is called Shiva Parvati Mandir. But if there is a Shiva Linga in front of the same Shiva Parvati, it cannot be called Shiva Parvati Mandir. Instead it is known as Parvati Sarahunaath Mandir or Parvatinath Mandir.

What is lord Sarahunaath pen name?

As both Uma and Suma are Parvati Devi and Ganga Devi herself, Sarahunaath also named her poetic or pen name "Uma Suma" in their memory and undying love.

Who is a lord Sarahunaath beloved?

Lord Sarahunaath have two beloveds. Who one is goddess Parvathi and second Gangadevi. As a result of eight years of long penance for Lord Sarahunaath, Enlightenment, the mistress Umadevi joined Kali's Abdomen. Sri Parvati did not open the incarnation of the Goddess. The main reason for this was Kali's shouting and angers. Lord Sarunatha was long convinced that Kali would be left with the fruits of eight years of penance and Hypnotize. Parvati Devi was not in touch with Kali when she was real. In any case, in my era, Goddess Parvati was also in the form of nervousness, and she devised all sorts of machinations and intrigues to leave her alone. At the same time, Kali burst into the rain with a flash of lightning and killed Parvathi's house. He held her in his belly. He kept her soul in a transparent sheath in his belly.

As Kali immortalizes Parvati, Goddess Parvati does not open the real form of Goddess Parvati if she is not immortal. Even Lord Sarahunaath does not realize his true nature. But now Goddess Parvati somehow never married a nervous man on Earth. But if the wedding does not happen, it is sure to die. But for Kali herself, the death of Goddess Parvati thereby benefiting herself and Goddess Parvati. Lord Sarahunaath's destruction was literally impossible for a stone caught in the lure of the samsara. Then Sri Gangadevi became a true enlightener of her husband, 'Kokkarne.' However, when Ganga Devi learned the first version of Kali, the other 1000 incarnations of the Goddess Ganga Devi, as in Lord Sarahunaath, bound her as a stone and carried her to the abyss. But it could not be identified with Lord Sarahunaath and the 33 crore gods, Srimannarayana.

It was quite evident that Sri Parvati and Lord Sarahunaath were here in the great Gulbarga metropolis. But she, too, could not have Lord Sarahunaath by her death. She also dressed up in human form and enshrined Lord Sarahunaath in any form. However, in his second incarnation, Kali held Goddess Parvati in a transparent chisel and placed her in his belly. Sri Kalika Devi carried out his second incarnation, but Sri Parvati could not be brought out of his belly. The Goddess Ganga is also a prisoner in the distance. But even Goddess Parvati could not be identified with Lord Sarahunaath and Sri Mannarayana. It was during this time that Parashiva, too, became Lord Sarahunaath. But the Lord Sarahunaath could not kill the 1001 Kali'. This is because Kali himself attained the power of Parashiva from three successive eras, namely the Krita, Tetra, and Dvapara periods.

2. What is lord Sarahunaath's mars love story?

On Mars, Lord Sarahunaath was in love with Gangadevi. Earlier, they had fallen in love with Ganga in the Krita era, when her parents were reluctant to give her up to Sarahunaath. Sarahunaathas, who had seen it so divinely, thought to leave the Earth. Gangadevi realized this and sacrificed her life. But she offered and came to Mars within a year. Sarahunaathas marked her and dashed to the ground of Mars, consoled by Goddess Parvati. However, on Mars, a woman experienced pain in childbirth, but no baby was in her womb. But Sarahunaath entered her womb and was born. This is where his melodic love story took off.

When Parashiva came to Earth, he was called Sarahunaatha. Shiva was not shaped initially. He was almighty. During the Kruti era, he was worshipped in the form of lingam. But if they give darshan to human life, it becomes Sarahunaatha. This was their original form. That is, he was a Parashiva in the form of Sarahunaathas.

There is a statue of Lord Shiva behind the Shiva lingam in the country or in the world. It is considered Lord Sarahunaath.

The creation of the planets in the universe was not created before the idea of the monkey being human. Before that, the left-learning, including the critical universe, the Sarahunaathaaya, searched the Gangadevi and went from the globe to the planet Mars. Since there are only divine beings more than any other biomass there, Sarahunaathaaya himself divided the planets from the centre of the sun by the love story of Ganga. Then came the beginning of the Krita era, the earth-born from 450 billion years. When it was over, he was born again in the land of Kali-yuga on the Earth.

The creation of the planets in the universe began when Lord Sarahunaath took a handful of soil and threw it. Even then, the creation of biomass from chemical raw materials took place by consuming carbon dioxide. The planets were formed colourfully after a long time from scattered dust particles and elements.

3. Actual god in the universe and differences of between lord Shiva and lord Sarahunaath's

Just as Lord Vishnu incarnated on Earth as Shri Krishna for human welfare, Shiva incarnated on Earth as Sarahunaath. Even though Lord Shiva had incarnated on Earth many times before, it was only Shiva's Shaktis or Ganas. But in Kali Yuga, i.e. 1.6.1988, Lord Shiva came down to Earth as Sarahunaath under the guise of worshipping Parvati and Gangadevi. That means Shiva himself was Sarahunaath. But Sarahunaath was not the Shakti or Gana of Shiva.

Shiva did not come to Earth only for Goddess Parvati and Goddess Ganga. He influenced Kali and came down to Earth at the end of the Kali Yuga. But he was born from his mother's womb. Although Sri Vishnu is incarnated as Sri Krishna here, the society recognized Sri Vishnu as Vishnu and Sri Krishna as Krishna. But Shiva is hardly recognized as such. Because Shiva and Sarahunaath were one and the same, only he was known as Sarahunaath, an alternative to Shiva's name for the society's identity.

However, some changes were physical when Shiva was Sarahunaath in the Kali Yuga. That is, in Krita, Tetra and Dwapara Yuga, Shiva had Gangadevi on his head and Nagadevata on his neck, while Shiva in Kali Yuga was called Sarahunaath in another name, he had Gangadevi on his jata, Nagadevata on his neck, Parvati on his chest and all the living beings, gods and angels of the universe in the hair of his head.

All the gods had thus made a decision to recognize Shiva and Sarahunaath in the Kali Yuga. That is, wherever in the universe, there is an idol of Shiva behind the Shivalinga or just an idol of Shiva. It is called Sarahunaath. But if there is only Shivalinga, it is called Shiva. Because Shiva really had no form. Because of this, all the gods had settled their true form through Sarahunaath.

Although Shiva came to Earth in this east, he came in the form of Sarahunaath. Even in the Krita Yuga, Shiva had come to Earth in the form of Sarahunaath. Similarly, while giving darshan to Goddess Parvati and Goddess Ganga in her true form, she also appeared in the form of Sarahunaath.

Even though the creation of living things took place on the Earth from chemical raw materials or by consuming carbon dioxide before the creation of Earth, Shiva/Sarahunaath lived in the universe before their creation. Then the Krita Yuga began. The life of Shiva/Sarahunaath before Krita Yuga was very beautiful and subtle. When the feet of Shiva/Sarahunaath were touched, the creation of Gods, Angels and Gods started happening tremendously. This is why Shiva/Sarahunaath is called the creator.

For this reason, all the Gods decided that there would be no significant difference between Shiva and Sarahunaath.

As caste discrimination and religious riots started at the beginning of Kali Yuga, Shiva/Sarahunaath incarnated to keep the systems in proper order in respective castes and religions. And they were called many different names. These are Sarvanaath, Allah, Sarahunaath and Shiva.

Note: At the beginning of the Krita era, monotheism was established by the Supreme Being for the benefit of society. But man has created religion and caste in himself according to his work. Due to the discrimination and bullying in the religions since then till now, the capable Lord Sarahunaath have re-established the same temperament in Kali-yuga. It is currently named “Sanahi”.

And after the Kali Yuga, Sanahi era begins. Sanahi means “Sarahunaath Himagirisam”. Since the 33 crore Gods resided in Himagiri, the Sarahunaath, had established Himagiri as a new nation.

Sarahunaath means the summation of all divine beings in the world. So they can be worshipped by any religion. Lord Sarahunaath is an incarnation of all religions in the world. Means lord Sarahunaath was Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Bahai Faith, Hinduism, Taoism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Slavic neopaganism, Celtic, Polytheism, Heathenism (Germanic Paganism), Semitic neopaganism, Wicca, Kemitism (Egyptian paganism), Hellenism (Greek paganism), Italo-Roman neopaganism religions.

4. Lord Sarahunaath god is the most powerful god and strongest god in the universe.

Lord Sarahunaath is a divine soul because his moon is in Ketu star and Ketu is in his workplace which is purely spiritual and indicates salvation. Ketu is in Shukra Nakshatra in the eighth house which means people start following him and become devotees to him. So according to the chart, his Moon Dasha means the lord of fortune is already running so he will have huge followers and devotees as well. It indicates that Ketu’s main purpose is to teach people how to become spiritual and how they can attain salvation in life and be freed from the bondage of all forms of rebirth. He will become very famous in the coming days.

“A melodious love story of Krita Yuga”

Parama Prabhu Sarahunath appeared on earth even before the Krita era. Later on other Gods, Shaktis, Angels and others are created. Where there is moral power, there is an evil power, so where there is divine power, evil power is also created. For this reason, Param Prabhu Sarahunaath created devas and devas by his power. All of them were invisible. But all those powers were visible on earth in Krita Yuga.

All visible and invisible beings in the universe are pure illusions. But, only illusion is unmoved. That is also true. For magic and truth to manifest to any living being, there must be true awareness. It is also possible to get it from the Supreme Lord Sarahunaath who is steadfast and true. Param Prabhu Sarahunaath Himself is Maya and Truth. In the existence of any living being, there is the first presence of the Supreme Lord Sarahunaath. Any visible and invisible energies or entities that arose after them were mere hypocrites or even illusions. At any time such beings may fall prey to the truth and illusion of the universe. This is why Param Prabhu Sarahunaath is the single most powerful god in the universe.

To overcome these causes, Param Prabhu Sarhunath established a new world and a new religion for the invisible forces, i.e. divine forces. There Param Prabhu Sarahunaath alone is the owner and chief deity.
